In Loving Memory of Mazi C. Grissom

Sunrise 9/28/2008 ~ Sunset 1/20/2026

Mazi C. Grissom was full of life, love, and style. He was a two-time Vice President of his community's Neighborhood Watch, always showing his dedication to helping others and keeping his neighborhood safe.

Throughout his life, Mazi called several places home - from Michigan to Indiana - with his final resting place being in Atlanta, Georgia. He faced many adversities with courage and grace.

Though small in size, Mazi was a mighty giant at heart, radiating strength, kindness, and compassion to everyone he met.

Mazi touched countless souls throughout his 17 years and 8 months of life. He had a deep love for traveling and enjoyed vacationing at fine resorts, with Michigan holding a special place in his heart as his favorite destination. Some of his most cherished moments were spent with his beloved grandmother, Ida Jackson, leaving memories - and little footprints - on her white rug.

Mazi leaves behind his loving mother, Camielle Grissom, his sister Ti'Asia Phillips, his brothers Corey Sullivan and Tyler Grissom, along with a beloved niece, aunts, uncles, cousins, and many close friends.

Mazi will be deeply missed but forever remembered - dancing joyfully in the sky, his spirit shining bright in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

“ I have so many precious memories of Mazi... he was so little... I remember the last time he visited me at my house after traveling all the way to Michigan... we decided to have a family movie night and Missy forgot his bed at mommy house so I offered a nice pillow for him to lay on so he climbed up there and tumbled right off... he was too small for it... that was after he got his nose caught in a mouse trap after being told “No Maz” curiosity got the best of him... we laughed so hard... I’m gonna miss my little nephew... I hope he has been reunited with “Babies” (his big sister)... Mazi will live on in our hearts... Rest well Mazi and lay on uncle Willie’s lap for me... I’m here for you Missy in your time of grief... I love you Lil Sis... 🧡😊

“ Mazi was a special Grand puppy. He was quiet and strong. He looked at you through eyes of Love. I was there the day that he was born. He was the runt of the litter but he grew up to do big things. When I found out about him being on the neighborhood watch I was so extremely proud. I remember him sitting in the windows and on the balcony doing the neighborhood watch my heart beamed with pride. And I'm sure the neighborhood felt safer knowing that Mazi was on patrol. I loved when he came to visit me in Michigan and plenty times I went South to visit him. This time when he came to visit I felt that he was making his last trip to Michigan I just didn't know it will be so soon that he would be gone. My heart has an empty void. I love you Mazi and you will truly be missed. One of the best little Grand puppies I could have ever hoped to have. You will always have a special place in my heart along with your mother Glory and your father Pepper. Keep watching over us Mazi. Loving you always, your grandmother Mommy ❤️🥹
